Calling All Artists – Show Us What Muni Means to You!

Want another way to rep your Muni pride? We're inviting all K–12 students to submit original artwork to our Ride Muni to School Week art contest. Whether you sketch, paint, or design digitally, make something that responds to one of the following prompts:

- 1. Meme-ify Muni! Take your favorite meme and incorporate Muni in a creative way.
Remember to keep it family-friendly! Public transit hubs and Muni vehicles can be used as inspiration for settings and more.
- 2. Ride on the wild side! Draw your favorite animal riding Muni, waiting at a Muni station, or reimagined as a Muni vehicle.
You can use any animal, including fictional or mythical ones. Inclusion of specific Muni lines (i.e. L Taraval or 14 Mission) are encouraged!

Submission guidelines:

- All media welcome: drawing, painting, mixed media, digital, etc.
- Artwork should be 8.5" x 11"
- Email a copy of your art to SRTSContest@sfmta.com with your name, school, and grade level
- Deadline: Friday, Feb. 27, 2026

Your creativity could take you places – one winner from each age group (K-5, 6-8, 9-12 and Access) will receive a $50 BLICK Art Materials gift card!

Just like Leandro's "Muni Dawg," your artwork could win you cool prizes!

Ready to jump on?

Here are tips to help you catch a ride on Muni today:

- All students can continue to take Muni whenever they want thanks to SFMTA's Free Muni for All Youth program – no application, special card or pass needed. Just board and go!
- Not sure how to get there? Plan your trip ahead of time with the MuniMobile app or Muni's online trip planner, or check out which routes go directly to your school on SFMTA's Muni Routes to City Schools webpage.
